It's Your World –
Change it!

Water was an important part of the English colonist (Pilgrim) and Wampanog (Native) story – the ocean, the fresh springs, the brook and river, and the water in England...
Why, and what does this teach us about water today?

It's Your Planet –
Love it!

Did you know that the environment in Plymouth (called Patuxet by the Wampanog) changed a lot because the English colonists (Pilgrims) came?
How is Plimoth Plantation saving native plants today? How can you do the same thing where you live?

It's Your Story –
Tell it!

How do Native People know about history? Oral tradition – telling stories.
Learn about some of these important stories from a Native teacher.

Try-Its

We can lead you in activities which fulfill some of the requirements for the following Try-Its:
